

Donating Securities to Rein in Sarcoma

Appreciated Stock: If you have stock with a very low basis (cost at which you purchased the stock) that has appreciated greatly over time you will pay capital gains on the appreciation when you sell the stock, BUT if you donate the highly appreciated stock to a charity, you avoid the capital gains tax and receive a charitable income tax deduction for the fair market value of the stock on the donation date. For example: you purchase a stock at $1 and it is now worth $100 you would pay capital gain tax on $99 of income but you may donate it to Rein in Sarcoma and receive a $100 charitable income tax deduction.
